GRADES and Social Emotional Health.
Students were thrown into "college -like learning" with little help from the teachers

I keep hearing that teachers are not teaching but just sitting at their desk & not checking on students! WHY??

As the cases continue to rise, how can you support scholars & parents who have elected to remain online instead of pressuring to tryout for teams?

Our scholars shouldn't have to choose health or athletics; no choice for parents; unnecessary stress for scholars

My scholar's biggest stressors are assignments and grades. Some assignments are being assigned on sites outside of Schoology

Dr Hudson's hold harmless policy was nice, but when teachers didn't enter grades until the grading period was over, the policy didn't help.
